

Agenda

General Sessions hosted by Wisconsin Commissioners:

1. Who Run the World: Women Redefining Male-Dominated Industries – Chairperson Summer Strand
2. Keeping the “Public” in “Public Interest” – Commissioner Kristy Nieto
3. Back to School - Midwestern Universities Driving Innovation – Commissioner Marcus Hawkins

Breakout Sessions:

- Power to the People: How Regulators and Policymakers Can Break the Cycle of Energy Poverty with Targeted Affordability Programs
- Hot Takes: Performance Based Ratemaking, Panacea or Proceed with Caution?
- Midwestern Nice: Air, Water, and Energy Collaboration on Large Load Impacts
- DSM me ASAP: Energy Efficiency and Demand Response Resources to Meet the Moment
- Fire & Ice: Best Practices for Managing Emerging Climate Risks
- Past is Prologue: Commissioner Origin Stories
- Don't Tell me No Lies and Keep Your Hands to Yourself: Federal and State Jurisdictional Turmoil
- Getting to Win-Win-Wins: Collaborative Problem Solving for Load Growth

Other breakout session topics – details coming soon:

- Electric Vehicles
- Water Regulation
- Broadband Expansion
- Economic and Workforce Development
- Emerging and Innovative Technologies
- Natural Gas
- Transmission Planning

The PSCW is reaching out to hosts, moderators, and participants. Panel information will be updated as details are finalized. Stay tuned!